RETURN OF THE OG

COLUMBIA, SC – May 22, 2026 – South Carolina recording artist, MASTER SPLNTA (formerly FatRat Da Czar), announces the release of his new studio album, Audiodaxity (aa·dee·ow·da·suh·tee). Slated to drop on Friday, May 29, 2026, the project will bypass traditional streaming giants and be available exclusively through his official website, mastersplnta.com.

After a 2-year hiatus that left fans and critics alike wondering which direction the SC staple is headed next, legendary hip-hop trailblazer MASTER SPLNTA has officially announced his anticipated follow up to 2024's DOJO, with the upcoming release of a brand-new studio project, Audiodaxity (aa·dee·ow·da·suh·tee). Set to release on May 29, 2026, the release marks a triumphant renaissance for the veteran musician.

Audiodaxity, defined by SPLNTA and AOPD, is a bold musical expression unencumbered by any specific form, genre or expectation aims to deliver profound, authentic storytelling that has made MASTER SPLNTA a staple in Southern hip-hop. Produced entirely by newcomer, AOPD, Audiodaxity aims to bridge generations, blending the timeless, charismatic flow that defined MASTER SPLNTA's (FatRat Da Czar's) early legacy with a deeply reflective, modern perspective forged during his time away from the stage.

"This project is a reflection of my growth as a writer but also as a man" says MASTER SPLNTA. "As I get older, my desire to "control" has reduced significantly, which spilled over into my writing process and also made AOPD the perfect accomplice."
